++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dull, occasionally wet for much of day. Drier, brighter, later.

Today:
A dull, cloudy morning with occasional rain, this turning heavy at times. This clears to the east mid to late afternoon as isolated light showers and sunny spells follow from the west, as the south to southwest winds strengthen. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
Mainly dry with only a few light well scattered showers, brought on the southwest breezes. With little cloud about it will be a chilly rural dawn. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Wednesday:
Sigificantly colder. North mostly keeping brighter spells and scattered showers. Cloud across south of the Province thickening at times to bring the risk of longer and heavier periods of rain. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Cold snap Thursday, early Friday, with scattered showers and fresh north to northwest winds. Drier late Friday. Milder Saturday as winds back southwest, pushing rainbands across area.
